WAGGA WRAP UP

It was a busy weekend for academy riders, with athletes racing in Wagga, Murwillumbah & New Zealand. In the Wagga junior tour, Tirian McManus (right) & Caleb Ewan made it a one two in the U15 mens division.

McManus won the time trial, two of the road stages & was 2nd in the other stage, whilst Ewan won the other road race & was 2nd in the time trial & the two other road stages.

Kelly Mackie won the U15 girls division, claiming 2 road stages, 2nd in the time trial & a 3rd in the final road stage.

Jackson Law won the U17 men category by winning the time trial, placing 2nd in the first road stage & finishing 2nd in the last stage.

Sam Arnold & Sandor Guggisberg rode well in the men's U17 B grade at their first attempt at open road racing. Sam placed 2nd in one of the road stages & Sandor was 3rd in the last road stage.

Madison Law, Shane Butler, Phil Mullany, & Isaac Beard whilst not figuring in the placing, they all road well for their first opens & all gained valuable experience that they will take into their next event.

Whilst this was going on, Aaron Donnelly (right) had an outstanding weekend finishing 3rd in the road race & 7th in the time trial at the National U19 road & time trial champs at Murwillumbah.

Meanwhile, Scott Law competed at an Invitational meeting in NZ last Friday & Saturday night. Scott had an impressive couple of days, winning scratch races & eliminations & also placing in sprints, keiran & madison races against the NZ Olympic team & their junior U19 world champ team.

RACING AT HOMEBUSH

Three of the BlueScope Steel runners raced at the state road championships at Homebush last Saturday. Ryan Gregson (right) & Ryan Hennessy both raced in the men's 10k open section, with Bree Jones racing in the 5k junior section.

Gregson ran a superb race in his first go at this distance. His time of 30.17 saw him finish in second place behind the more experienced Russell Dessaix-Chin.

Hennessy also ran a personal best time of 34.17 to place 37th in a field of 600.

In the junior girls, Jones placed 2nd in the 15 yr category with a time of 19.28.

2008 ACADEMY GOLF DAY

Entries for the Illawarra Academy of Sport Golf Day are now open. The event is a significant fundraising venture for the Academy golf program & is supported by local squad coaches & players alike.

The event will be held on Friday June 20 & will once again be hosted by Kiama Golf Club. It is anticipated that a field of more than 100 eager & talented golfers will take to the greens. The basic entry fee ($150 p/team of 3) includes 18 holes of golf, a halfway bbq, drinks, dinner & raffle tickets. Hole sponsorship is also available for any business priced at $300 per hole, which includes venue signage plus all the above.

MASTER ZUNIC

The South West Rocks junior masters was played last weekend at the South West Rocks golf club.

Jordan Zunic (right) had a great tournament with scores of 73 & 73. This result saw him win the boys 16 yrs category.

He was also crowned the overall tournament winner after he had the equal lowest total & was involved in a play off, which he won. Also playing well without winning were Aaron Keevers & Roland Krelle.
