WOLLONGONG JUNIOR

The 2009 Wollongong Junior Masters concluded on Monday, after two days of rain, wind and storms. Jordan Widdicombe made light work of these conditions to score a brilliant win in the boys 14 and 15 years category. His rounds of 69 and 72, saw him finish five shots clear of second place Travis Smyth. In the girls 15 and over category, Amelia Stanard finished third in the scratch category, after being the day one nett winner.

Graduates to feature were Adam Barnard, who was second in the boys 16 and over category, whilst in the overall category, Aaron Keevers finished second with scores of 69 and 70 and Kane Parks third with scores of 76 and 67.

NSW WIN GOLD

Tegan Richards (Cordeaux) and Kyah Gray (Shoalhaven Heads) have returned home from the Under 15 National championship with a gold medal.

Their NSW team finished the preliminary rounds undefeated and a for and against record of 35-3. After beating Queensland 3-2 earlier in the tournament, they met once again in the final. This time, the NSW team demolished their opposition, winning 6-1. Richards had the distinction of scoring a goal in the opening match of the competition and another in the final match.

NATIONAL TITLE

The Australian Junior Championship was held at the Halekulani Bowling Club last week. Two members of the Warilla Bowls Academy program were involved.

Sarah Boddington (Huskisson) was in the girls team, whilst Kyle Johannes (Barrack Heights) was in the boys. Their NSW team won the boys and girls trophy as well as the overall. Boddington won a silver medal in the fours, then gold in the girl's pairs.

Johannes also picked up a silver medal in the boys fours then lost the bronze medal playoff in the pairs.

COMEBACK SUCCESS

High profile graduate, Phil Jaques has made a successful come from back surgery. Following a long layoff due to injury, Jaques lined up for Sutherland in the first round of the Sydney Grade competition, Jaques smashed an unbeaten 114 to steer his side to a comfortable win.

Playing with him were two Academy cricketers of the year in David Murphy and Nic Maddinson.

ATHLETES RECOGNISED

The Wingecarribee Shire Council hosted their annual mayoral reception last Thursday. Athletes, parents, council members and politicians all attended the function.

Speaking on behalf of all the athletes was Tirian McManus from the cycling squad. Tirian has had a highly successful year and the public speaking course certainly showed in his presentation.
