

OUR PARTNERS

OUR SPONSORS

COMING SOON...

JUNE

- 5.....Tennis
Talent ID Day
Tennis NSW
URAC—Woll Uni
3pm—5pm
- 5.....Golf
Training &
Edu (Sports Psych)
Kiama
2:30pm
- 6.....Tennis
Training & Education
Beaton Park
Sunday
9am— 12 MIDDAY

Cricket

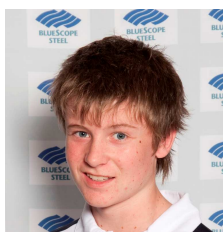

DEVELOPMENT SQUADS

A number of graduates and current scholarship holders of the BlueScope Steel cricket program have been named in representatives squads recently.

Callum De Bruyn (Albion Park), Rod Nguyen (Barrack Heights) and Zac Hilton (Blackbutt—Pictured Above) were named in the South Coast District Association's Junior Development 16s squad.

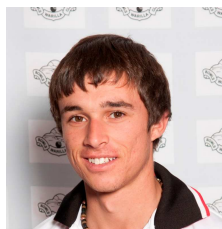

Also getting recognition were: Sam Flanagan, Cameron Magennis (Haywards Bay—Pictured Right), Chris Moore (Keiraville), Blake Redman, Jackson Stewart and Rahil Verma, who were named in the Illawarra under 17 High Performance squad.

Lawn Bowls

CLEAN SWEEP

The NSW under 18 team last weekend won the two test series against the ACT 2-0. The NSW team contained four members of the current Warilla Bowls Academy program.

Kyle Johannes (Barrack Heights) and Aaron Spears (Warilla—Pictured Above) represented the boys team, whilst Sarah Boddington (Huskisson) and Stephanie Hili (Barrack Heights) represented the girls.

All four players went through the series without losing a match.

TENNIS CLINIC

The IAS tennis program is supporting a Tennis NSW Talent ID afternoon for young athletes on Saturday 5 June 2010.

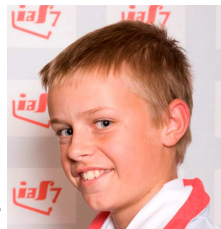

Interested athletes go to www.tennis.com.au/southeasttennis for more details.

Unsubscribe from eNEWS? Please click here

Tennis

LATEST RANKINGS

The latest Australian tennis open rankings now show four girls and one boy from the Academy program in the top 250.

In the boys, Jack Swindells (Fairy Meadow—Pictured Right) has dropped his ranking from 440 this time last year to 257.

Leading the way is Ellen Perez (Mt Warrigal) who has now cracked into the top 200 at at number 199.

Next is Laura Kent (Kangaroo Valley) 205, Dael McKenna (Oak Flats) 224 and Gabby Hooker (Woonona) at 238.

Graduate Emma Ford (Dapto—Pictured Right), who only recently returned to competition after a layoff of over 6 months, is also ranked highly at 158.

Rugby League

TOYOTA CUP

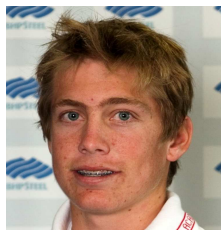

Graduates of the rugby league and rugby union program are starting to come through in the NRL's Toyota Cup competition.

Pubstay rugby union graduate Tyson Frizell (Woonona—Pictured Right) after playing for union's Australian under 19 team last year, has now switched codes and is currently playing for the Cronulla Sharks Toyota Cup squad.

The Dragon's Toyota Cup squad has five Academy graduates in their ranks.

Chris Astill, Simon Maslanka, Mitchell Neilsen, Mitch Rein and Beau Henry (Pictured Right).

For more information go to www.iasaillawarra.com.au